DANCING IN OPEN AIR CHILDREN TO BE GIBSON GUESTS. AT MILITARY PARTY

Newport Sojourners at Fort Adams Benefit.

Observes Birthday Anniversary With Stag Affair at Clam Bake Club.

and many of the summer resi-The affair was given on the about the quarters of Lieut, Col. Landers and was in aid of the Relief Society.

Relief Society.
a large open air pavilion there was ai and exhibition dancing, while scataround were decorated booths. The ations were in charge of Mrs.
in, wife of Capt. S. F. Dallain.; Mrs.
oned, wife of Capt. Allen D. Rayhad charge of the punch booth; Donald C. McDonald, the candy ooth: Mrs. Thomas F. Dwyer, the fortune elling tent, and Mrs. Louis Brechemin f Fort Greble, the tea tables.

ident William R. Hunter of the Bake Club gave his customary star at the club last evening in honor day anniversary. The table had al decorations, the grounds were ed Sydney J. Colford, Jr., Pem-well, Joseph Harriman, H. H. Thomas Kenefick, R. Livingston Hobbs and Harry Brevoort Kane.

Mrs. Whitehouse Entertains.

Luncheons were given this afternoon by and Mrs. J. Victor Onativia, who have a country place at Lawrence, L. L. arrived coday to visit Miss Maria Watherill of to-day to visit Miss Maria Wetherill at lamestown. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Butler Preston and family arrived to-day to visit and Mrs. J. B. Haggin at Villa Rosa.

VIVIAN BURNETT TO MARRY.

Engagement to Miss Constance C. Buel Is Reported.

engagement of Vivian Burnett, son rs. Frances Hodgson Burnett and the original of her "Little Lord Fauntleroy," arence Clough Buel, formerly associate ditor of the Century Magazine, was reported yesterday.

Mr. Burnett studied at Harvard, is a

NOTES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD.

The wedding of Miss Edith Roelker, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Will-iam G. Roelker of New York, to Charles P. Curtis, Jr., of Boston will take place St. Luke's Church, East Green-I. There will be a reception at Greene Farms, the home of the bride.

Mrs. W. Scott Cameron will give a te this week for New Brunswick on a Muller, Ne wYork (Thomas Flier). hing trip. Their daughter, Miss Ursula pleott Brown, is a guest of Mr. and es. Edmund Twining, parents of her e. Edmund S. Twining, Jr., in South-

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Gould Jennings, have been passing the early part of summer at their country place in irfield, Conn., will go to their cottage. Newport next week for the remainder Research, will not resume his duties here

Berlin for Dresden, Later they will in the Adirondacks with their

Mrs. Steuart Davis.

Will Enjoy Pienie With Artist's Wife and Daughter.

Army and Navy Colonies and Stripe and Navy Colonies and In the first baseball game of the services. In the first baseball game of the sea-son here to-day Bretton Woods lost to Littleton, 8 to 1. A large crowd attended the game. Afterward many motor parties enjoyed sea at the Mount Pleasant and the Mount Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Cragin of Palm Beach, arrived at the Mount Washington.

W.R.HUNTERGIVES DINNER Beach arrived at the Mount Washington Hotel for the season. The Misses Cobb of New York arrived at Chocorus Lake. where Erof. and Mrs. Robert D. Ward of Cambridge are guests at the Wainwright cottage. Motor parties from Sugar Hill, Whitefield, Bretton Woods and Franconia went over to the Bethlehem Country Club for tea to-day.

NEWFORT, July 16.—A military garden sarty and dance at Fort Adams this afternoon attracted both the army and navy and stracted both the army and navy and stracted both the army and navy and stracted both the army and navy and many arms. R. A. Swigert are among them. Among the summer visitors at Craw-ford's who took the four mile walk to Bretton Woods to-day were Miss Laura Landers, Mrs. Frederick Thompson and Prof. and Mrs. John C. Croker.

POLO ENTHUSIASTS ARE FILLING NARRAGANSETT

Games Will Be Started To-morrow-Mrs. F. M. Carnegie on Motor Trip.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, July 16 .- With the polo season only two days off many summer guests interested in the game arrived Rham, Frederick H. Paine, Judge W. Douglas, George I. Scott, F. P. Gartson, Dr. H. J. Knapp, Benjamin aver, Elisha Dyer, Reginald Norman, and Newport, arrived here the pier yesterday and to-day, George A. Miller of London, who is to take charge and Newport, arrived here the pier and Newport, arrived here the company was a second possible of the tournaments at Narragansett Pier and Newport, arrived here the company was a second possible of the tournaments at Narragansett Pier and Newport, arrived here the company was a second possible of the tournaments at Narragansett Pier and Newport, arrived here the game arrived at the pier yesterday and to-day. eaver, Fisha Dyd, reford Powell, Walter S. Andrews, Lewis and Newport, arrived here this evening, reford Powell, Walter S. Andrews, Lewis Spencer Fiske, manager of the Piping oyd Mayer, George F. Cozzens, I. Good-Rock Club, arrived yesterday to assist in the preliminary arrangements.

Capt. W. H. Hayes of Newport. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Neff, Mrs. E. Neff and Wrs. Oscar Neff, Mrs. E. Neff and Wrs. Oscar Neff, Mrs. E. Neff and H. C. Sickler of New York arrived to-Sir Arthur and Lady day at the Mathewson, while among yes-

George S. Scott. Sir Arthur and Lady Herbert of England were guests of honor at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. T. Shaw Safe at Ocean Lawn.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Willard H. Brownson were guests of honor at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. George Peabody Eustis at Sea Briskie House. The other guests included the Rev. and Mrs. Roderick Terry, Miss Charlotte Pell and Mrs. Frederick H. Baldwin.

There was also a dinner party at the Russian Embassy given by Ambassador and Mms. Bakhmeteff.

Lawrence L. Waterbury registered at Lawrence L. Waterbury registered at Philadelphia; Charles Patterson Penny of Philadelphia; Charles Patterson Penny of TOURISTS BY AUTOMOBILE.

motor from New York at the Hotel Aspinwall to-day included:
Miss Windsor, Miss Ellen Warren. Bentley W. Warren, Jr., Miss Rose Thorn-dike (Packard); Mrs. Henry S. Lockwood,

Mrs. T. I. Raymond, Mrs. A. D. Wadsworth (Packard); James H. Williams, Henry K. Kews, Philip R. Sturtevant (Bulck); Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stegman, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Ferve, Miss Ferve, Miss Louise Ferve, Walter Morris, Walter. dgson Burnett and the title Lord Fauntieroy."
C. Buel, daughter of tiel, formerly associate tory Magazine, was relied at Harvard, is a titled at Harvard, is a

Mr. Burnett studied at Harvard, is a member of the Players, the Manhasset Bay Yacht and other clubs and is about thirty-eight years old. He is mainly occupied at present with politics. He makes his home with his mother at Plandome, L. I. Mr. and Mrs. Buel and their daughter are now at their country place in Ridgefield, Conn. The wedding, it is said, will take place there in September.

SUNAPEE. N. H., July 16.—Arrivals at the Granliden Hotel to-day over Ideal Mrs. Carter Ward Tour included: Mrs. N. M. Pond and Mrs. Carter Ward Alternus, Hartford, Conn. (Peerless); Mr. Alternus, Hartford, Conn. (Peerless); Mr. and Mrs. David P. Canavan, New York at the Gables, return A. Elbridge, Jr., Mrs. H. F. Byrnes, Springfield, Mass. (Cadillac); Mr. and Mrs. John E. Calhoun, Cornwall, Conn. (Peerless); Mr. and Mrs. Arrivals at the Granliden Hotel to-day over Ideal Mrs. Carter Ward Alternus, Hartford, Conn. (Peerless); Mr. at the Gables, return day. Arriving at the Rables, Return day. Arriving at the Gables, return day. Arriving at the (Cadillac): Mr. and Mrs. John E. Cal-houn, Cornwall, Conn. (Peerless): Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Wiggins, New York (Oldsmobile): Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dove. New York (Packard): Mr. and Mrs. W.

New York Trackets, White Plains, N. Y. (Bulck); Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Breckwith, Plainfield, N. J. (Bulck); Mr. and Mrs. Mainfield, N. J. (Planck), are all Minds, New York (Plerce-Arrow); Mr. and Mrs. Weille, Newark, N. J. (Flat); Mr. and Mrs. F. W. McClellan, Scarsdale, N. Y. (Peerless).

New London, July 16.—Among the automobile arrivals at the Griswold Hotel were:

W. B. Walker, New York (Winton):
Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hanson, Schenectady
(Packard): Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tompkins, Elmira (Pierce-Arrow): Mr. and Mrs. W.

DR. ALLEN MAY QUIT BUREAU.

Said to Be Irreparably Miffed by Rockefeller Foundation.

Research, will not resume his duties here at the expiration of a six months leave of absence which he is now devoting to speial work at the University of Wisconsin. cial work at the University of Wisconsin.

Dr. Frederick A. Cleveland is now in charge of the bureau and Dr. Allen has made known his objections to continuing his work because he believes that the purposes of the bureau are being frustrated through the domination of the board of the work of the bureau are being frustrated through the domination of the board.

of trustees by the Rockefellers.

While it has been denied officially that the policies of the bureau are being influenced by the gifts made to it from the Rockefeller Foundation, Dr. Allen has nevertheless insisted that its policy is dictated by the foundation. The primary se in Bar Harbor for the remainder of season after her arrival from Europe.
Mr. and Mrs. George Thorne Hill, Jr., and Mrs. George Thorne Hill, Jr., and testing students in the bureau's plan of permitting students in the bureau's plan of permi rive. As Mr. and Mrs. Sloane are in referee will then take up the proceedings mourning because of the death of Mrs. again. LENOX, July 16 .- Those who arrived by Sloane's brother, the late George W. Vanderbilt, there will be no large entertainment for the Duchess. A few of Mr. and Mrs. Sloane's friends have been invited to meet her on Saturday evening-Charles Lanier, who had been in New York since his return from Europe, mo-tored up to Lenox to-day with Miss Iren-

> Mr. and Mrs. William Slater, Jr., went to Beverly to-day. From there they will go to York Harbor for six weeks. Ar-thur G. Sedgwick, who was hurt on Tuesday night when his carriage was over-turned in Stockbridge, was improved to-day. It will be some time before he is able to be out. Miss Grace Sedgwick about $5,000, are made chiefly to religious

> Mrs. Carter Ward Bonsals, who was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Strong at the Gables, returned to New York today. Arriving at the Maplewood, Pittsday. Arriving at the Maplewood. Pittsfield, to-day were Mrs. L. A. Elbridge, L.
> A. Elbridge, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. C.
> Powers, D. W. Powers, Mrs. W. H. Howland, Mr. and Mrs. Willis L. Rich, Mrs.
> F. C. Hoagland, Mrs. O. A. Aiken, Miss
>
> for the Destitute Blind and gave her > residuary estate in equal shares to her > daughters, Aline P. Benjamin and Mrs. Julia N. Gaist and the Rev. A. A. Quirk, Ida B. Gale, mouth Beach to visit Mr. and Mrs.

Spencer Turner. Dr. E. H. Billings and Dr. Rudolph Gebhardt of Philadelphia She gave to her daughter, Elizabeth Nicoare at the Red Lion Inn. Stockbridge. Mrs. Prescott Hall Butler of St. James, Alls. Freecommunity of the Lambert of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Leupp. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Leupp of Washington, will speak on equal suf-frage in Lee on Saturday evening. Miss Leupp is passing the summer with he parents in Tyringham.

Augustus Schermerhorn, who had been visiting Mrs. Richard Auchmuty, has gone to Whitestone, L. I. Mrs. Francis Wayland and Miss Goodwho were at the Curtis Hotel, have gone to New Haven. The Misses Kate and Maude Buckingham and William H. Benton, who have been looking over Buckingham estate, will go to York to-morrow and thence to Chicago to settle the estate of the late Charles C. Buckingham. In September the Misses Buckingham will open their Lenox property. Mrs. Peter McCarter, Miss A. O. Kellner of Brookle Kellner of Brooklyn and Andrews of East Orange are at t Curris Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dixey entertained at Tanglewood to-d for Miss Edith Morgan of New York

THE SEAGOERS.

Departures for England and the Continent-Some Arrivals.

Sailing to-day by the American liner New York for Plymouth, Cherbourg and

There was also a dinner party at the Russin Ethniasey given by Ambassad of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Business of the Casino to-day, as did Henry V. B. Darlington, who is visiting his parent at the Casino to-day, as did Henry V. B. Barlington, who is visiting his parent at the Casino to-day, as did Henry V. B. Barlington, who is visiting his parent and Miss. Emina May Wethern of Boston, withing Mrs. J. H. Houghton of Springneld, Mrs. U. A. Houghton of Springneld, Mrs. U. A. Houghton of Springneld, Mrs. Emina May Wethern of Boston, wisting Mrs. John W. Burgess.

Ex-Commodore Ethnidge T. Gerry, with referred at the Gladatone were Leighton J. O'Brien of New York and Seen daylors of the steam yacht Narada, as the guests of ex-Commodore Henry Walters.

Ochre Court is being prepared for Mrs. P. M. Carnegie, a sister-indian or the Mrs. P. M. Carnegie, a sister-indian or the New York on the steam yach Naradan J. Perry is entertaining Miss Josephine Ulbon G. D. Wilener and her son, Geogre for Mrs. P. M. Carnegie, a sister-indian or the Mrs. P. M. Carnegie, a sister-indian or $100,000 FOR HOME FOR AGED.

Miss Louise Shipley Leaves Provision for Institution at Peekskill. WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., July 16.—The will of Miss Louise Shipley, who died a few weeks ago at her home in Peekskill, church iam A. Sawyer to-day. The principal part of the estate, amounting to about $100,-000, is left to the Associated Charities of Smaller bequests, amounting in all to societies and cemeteries.

WILLS AND APPRAISALS.

The bequest for the blind is of New York.

Miss Edith Bartlett has gone to MonEpiscopal chaplain at the home.

las, a rainting. "The Holy Family," and to Florence Sims Wyeth, daughter of Dr. John A. Wyeth, an interest in villa prop-erty at Rapallo, with all its furnishings Miss Wyeth also gets the income from two-thirds of the residuary estate and the other third goes to her sister. Marion Sims Wyeth, and brother, John A. Wyeth, Jr. Wyeth, and brother, John A. Wyeth, Jr. Each beneficiary gets the principal of the trust fund on reaching 25 years of age.

CLARA E. BROCKWAY left $1,000 to her housekeeper, Anna O'Donnell, and gave her residuary estate to her sons, Albert and Howard A. Brockway, and her grand-daughter, Sylvia Brockway. The testatrix said she made no provision for three other grandchildren, although they are "equally dear to her heart," because they will be cared for by their mother.

Geonge B. Post, an architect, who died at Bernardsville, N. J., on November 28, 1913, left an estate of more than $100,000 and had real estate worth $45,753 in New York, including his residence at 944 Lex-ington avenue. He left his business to his ated a loan of $21,000 to his son, Geor B. Post, Jr., and of $20,000 to his son, Wright Post, be deducted from the The estate went in 'equal shares

Turnbull. Louis Karz, who died January 5, 1913, and conducted the Louis Katz Art Gal-leries, left $39,755, of which $19,851 was the value of his interest in the business. PATRICK W. VALLELY, who died Decem-r 20, 1913, and was head of P. W. Val-ly & Co., dealers in desks and office furber 20, 1913, and was head of P. W. Val-lely & Co., dealers in desks and office fur-niture, left $42,442 to four sons and two than $75,000 and directed that upon the daughters.
DANIEL TOPPEY WORDEN, a member

the New York Stock Exchange for forty years and sen of John L. Worden, who commanded the Monitor in her battle with the Merrimac, left an estate estimated at more than $100,000. The will was filed more than $100,000. The will and the surface testerday in the Surrogate's Court. Mr. Worden, who died on July 9 at his sumper home at Bar Harbor. Me. gave his trust funds for four persons were in violation of the law against perpetuitles and lation of the law against perpetuitles and that the entire estate should be divided mer home at Bar Harbor. Me., gave his summer home at Bar Harbor. Me., gave his sestate in equal shares to his wife, Mrs. lation of the law against perpetuities and Emilie B. Worden: his daughter, Mrs. Harriet W. Lovell, and his son, John Lorimer Worden.

Bentia of the will on the ground that the route in violation of the law against perpetuities and that the entire estate should be divided among the heins at law to the exclusion of the two institutions.

BENTANO'S FOREIGN DEPT.

French. German. Spanish & Italian Books.

Grammars for all languages. Catalogs free fifth Ave. and 27th St., N. Y.

METHODISTS TO BUILD

future. liever in religious education. Warren Candler was chosen lor. The bishop is a brother of Asa Candler.

It is planned for the university to berk in September on a $5,000,000. The establishment of a Southern Methodist University in Atlanta is the church's answer to the decision of Tennot supreme control over the Vanderbill University trustees, who accepted $1,000,000 from Andrew Carnegie against the protest of the church. After the courts sustained the trustees the church with ew its support from Vanderbilt.
In announcing his gift of $1,000,000 Asa

Candler said that he wanted to repair the damage done to the church by the de-cision in the Vanderbik case. He also criticised by inference the sort of edu-cation for which Mr. Carnegie stands and said that the hope of society is in edu-cation under religious influences. Mr. Candler made it very clear that the Southern Methodist Church is to be supreme in the affairs of the university street which he endows. Bishop Warren Cand-ler has long conducted a propaganda sible

LEAVES FORTUNE TO SONS.

E. B. Tuttle's Widow, 80 Years Old, Receives House and $4,000 Annuity.

Ezra B. Tuttle, formerly president of the Williamsburg Savings Bank, left a gross estate of $594,682.31, which is re-duced to $564,208.06 by expenses of ad-ministration and other charges. His wife, Frances D. Tuttle, receives the house at 454 Reford avenue and $4,000 a year. 494 Bedford avenue and $4,000 a year. She is $2 years old. August P. Day, a friend, 80 years old, gets an annuity of Although the bequests to two sons, Winthrop M. and Frank D. Tuttle, are tied up temporarily the appraiser estimates that they will eventually receive $214,795 and $217,976 respectively will also provides that about $70,000 is to go to Methodist Episcopal charities under certain conditions. An affidavit filed with the appraiser's report says Mr. Tuttle owned ninety-five shares of the preferred stock of the Brooklyn Daily Times of a par value of sens. William S. and James Otis Post, and directed that when the estate is distributed a loan of $21,000 to his son. George and that the common stock is valueless. The paper has been running at a loss, UPHOLDS WILL OF J. J. BUTLER. Surrogate Decides Trust Funds to Four Persons Are Valid.

death of certain life beneficiaries, wh were to receive an income of $75 a month the principal was to go in equal shares t the Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum the Newsboys' Lodging House. The life benefitiaries are the decedent's uncle. riece, sister and mother-in-law. Mrs. Margaret E. Leach, a niece, ob-jected to the will on the ground that the trust funds for four persons were in vio-lation of the law grains; perpetuities and

FERNAND DESMOULIN.

Painter, Engraver and Philanthro plat Is Dead in Paris. Paris, July 16.—Fernand Desmoulin died here yesterday.

M. Desmoulin was born June 4, 1853 M. Desmoulin was born June 4, 1853. He won honorable mention at the Salon of 1885 and a medal of the third class in 1889. His work also won medals at the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicag, the Lyons Exposition and other exhibitions. He was a chevalier of the Legion of Honor.

M. Desmoulin was known in Paris as the "lay prison chaplain" because of his interest in prisoners and ex-convicts. He visited and helped the inmates of the city's prisons and often continued to prisons and often continued to help the convicts after they had been released. Mme. Calillaux, who is about to be tried for the murder of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Figaro, was one of those to whom M. Desmoulin recently had extended encouragement and consolation.

THE REV. DR. A. D. CARLILE.

Brooklyn Pastor Dies at Country Home in New Hampshire.

The Rev. Dr. Allan D. Carlile, pastor of the Throop Avenue Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn, died yesterday at his country home in Wolfboro, N. H., in his fifty-first year. He occupied his pulpit for the last time on Sunday, June 28. Since his arrival in Wolfboro with his wife, three daughters and two sons he had been suffering from a nervous breakdown, but until a few days ago his illness was not regarded as serious.

Dr. Carlile was the son of John S. Carlile, who was a United States Senator from West Virginia. He was graduated Carlile, who was a United States Senator from West Virginia. He was graduated from Park College, Missouri, and from the Western Theological Seminary and received the degree of doctor of divinity from Hanover College, He held pastorates at Brockton, Mass.; Easton, Pa.; New Albany, Ind., and Pittsburg, Pa., before being called to Brooklyn in 1906 as the successor of the late Rev. Dr. received the degree of doctor of divinity from Hanover College. He held pastorates at Brockton, Mass.; Easton, Pa.; New Albany, Ind., and Pittsburg, Pa.; before being called to Brooklyn in 1906, as the successor of the late Rev. Dr. Lewis R. Foote in the Throop avenue church.

Dr. Carlile was former Moderator of the Brooklyn Presbytery. He was a member of the Board of Missions of the leading architectural critics of the countries of the countri the Brooklyn Presbytery. He was a member of the Board of Missions of the Presbyterian Church, the Union Society of the Civil War and of Montauk Lodge, 286, F. & A. M.

REAR ADMIRAL ROBESON.

Retired Officer Was Once Supervisor of New York Harbor,

Walpole, N. H., July 16.—Henry Bellows Robeson, a Rear Admiral, retired, of the United States navy, died here to-day. Born in New Haven in 1842, Admiral Robeson entered the Naval Academy in 1869 and was appointed a Commander in 1874 the was made a Cartain a few years. 1874. He was made a Captain a few years later, a Commodore in 1898 and a Rear Admiral in 1899.

Admiral in 1899.

He served through the civil war and after the war he was with the Atlantic and Asiatic squadrons and twice was on duty at the New York navy yard. He was Supervisor of New York Harbor in 1891 and 1892, taught in the Naval War College in 1895 and was retired with the rank of Rear Admiral on March 28, 1899, when cantain of the yard at the Portswhen captain of the yard at the Ports-mouth navy yard.

DR. HENRY CLAY ENO.

Specialist Was One of the Owners of the Old Fifth Avenue Hotel.

The case against Edward E. Pidgeon, former manager of the Jardin de Danse, once taken to effect organization and who was charged with running an unlawful dance hall, was dismissed by Justices Russell, Salmon and Kernochan in Spe-cial Sessions yesterday on the motion of Assistant District Attorney Sullivan. Pidgeon, it was charged, violated the law by advertising that dancing lessons would be given in the same place where liquor was sold, but the advertisement was with-drawn after his arrest. Mrs. Charles Henry Israels, head of the committee on Amusement Resources for Working Girls, at whose instance the ac-tion was brought, notified the District At-torney that she was convinced no future breaches of the law would take place and breaches of the law would take place and she did not wish any further prosecution. The facts in the proceeding, which has been going through the courts since last November, were conceded by Pidgeon, and he intended to make it a test case.

Rose Garden Opening Postponed. The Broadway Rose Gardens and Danse de Pierrette, in the old Metropolitan Skat-ing Rink, at Broadway and Fifty-second Southern Methodist Church is to be supreme in the affairs of the university which he endows. Bishop Warren Candber has long conducted a propaganda against the educational schemes of Carnegian Rockefeller.

In the About Propaganda that the contractors have not the alterations and the contractors have not the alterations. able to finish their work. of the opening, it was said last night, would be made late in the week.

Plays and Players.

Several members of Bricklayers Uni No. 34 are going to Hammerstein's Roof Garden to-night to build their own brick wall for Houdini, the so-called "handto walk through. Houdini me doubts that he will go th one doubts that he will go through the specially built wall without difficulty.

Isabelle Evesson has been engaged by Henry W. Savage for the part of Truth in this season's production of Walter Brown's morality play, "Everywoman." She was the original Fuscia Leach in "Moths" at Wallack's Theatre, and re-

King."

Katherine Lee, the five-year-old actress, who played the baby mermaid in "Neptune's Daughter," which is being shown in motion pictures at the Globe Theatre, will have an ice cream party on the stage of the theatre after the matinee on July 22, with other children who play is metion pictures as her matinee on July 22, with other children ture, 73,

Edna Goodrich is to appear in the movies. She has arranged with the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Company to appear in a motion picture play which has not as yet been selected. The pictures will be made at the Lasky studios at Hollywood, Cal. After they have been

In New York To-day.

National Arts Club, exhibit of paintings, 119 East Nineteenth street. Washington Irving School, exhibition of paintings from the Metropolitan Museum. 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.

Meeting to discuss the Colorado strike, Webster Hall, 119 East Eleventh street 7 P. M.

NOTED ART CRITIC AND JOURNALIST DIES

Montgomery Schuyler Survives His Wife Only Ten

Days.

VERSATILE AS A WRITER

Began in the Newspaper Field and Did Some of His Best Work There.

Montgomery Schuyler, for many years a well known journalist and art critic of this city, died of pneumonia yesterday at his home in New Rochelle. His wife died on July 6, and it is believed that the chill The Rev. Dr. Allan D. Carlile, pastor which developed into his fatal illness was contracted by Mr. Schuyler while attendng her funeral.

Mr. Schuyler was born at Ithaca, N. Y., on August 19, 1843, and was the son of the Rev. Dr. Anthony Schuyler and He and Johnson Livingston. He entered Hobart College at Geneva, N. Y., in 1858, but was not graduated. He came to New York in the civil war period and almost immediately entered upon the work in which he afterward became distinguished. in 1868 he joined the staff of the World, of which Manton Marble at that time was the editor. He attracted attention at once leading architectural critics of the country. Since the death of Russell Sturgis he had been acknowledged to be the leading critic of architecture in the United States. His contributions to his favorite study have been numerous and constant, being confined in late years to the pages being confined in 1842 years to the pages of the Architectural Record.

In 1883 Mr. Schuyler left the World and joined the editorial staff of the Times, remaining there until 1907, when he ratired from active newspaper work and removed to New Rochelle. From 1885 to 1887 he was managing editor of Harristonia. per's Weekly, and from the latter year until 1884 continued to do work as a reader for Harper & Bros. Since 1997 he had been at work on a "History of Architecture in the United States," a monumental work, which unfortunately he left unfinished.

In 1912 Mr. Schuyler came to THE SUN as a special writer on books. He was noted for his command of the English language and an extraordinary acquaint-ance with the masterpieces of English ance with the masterpieces of English literature which was so wonderfully retained in his mind and so naturally brought forth that his constant literary references never appeared labored.

Mr. Schuyler was descended in a direct line from Philip Pieterse Schuyler, the founder of the family in America, who in 1650 married Margarita Van Slichtenberg, at Beverwyck row Albany and was of the Old Fifth Avenue Hotel.

Dr. Henry Clay Eno of 8 East Sixtyfirst street, a well known eye and ear specialist and a large owner of real esspecialist and a large owner of real specialist and a large owner of real specialist and a large owner of real esspecialist and a large owner of real eslarge owner of place in from Thielion on feat eslarge owner of physicians and surgeons in 1864. He served as a civil war medical cadet, and for a number of years was attending surgeon at the Eye and Especialist and a large owner of the Scelety of New Rochell and Institute of Architects. He wrote poems nd critical papers for many magazines.

1892 he published "Studies in American rehitecture" and in 1996 "Westward— Architecture"

The Course of Empire."

In 1876 Mr. Schuyler married Katherine Beeckman Livingston, daughter of Robert Dwight Livingston. They are sur-Robert Dwight Livingston. They are survived by two children, Montgomery Schuyler, Jr., who has spent many years in the diplomatic service of the United States and was recently Minister to Ecuador, and Robert Livingston Schuyler, professor of history at Columbia University. Montgomery Schuyler was with his father when he died. The younger son is now in England on a mission of research for his college.

Mrs. Daniel K. Lefter.

Mrs. Daniel K. Lefter died on Wednes-day at her home in Port Richmond, Staten Island. She was born in Flushing, the daughter of the late Peter McKenna, and for many years lived in the old McKenna home on Lawrence street. She was at one time secretary of the State W. C. one time secretary of the State W. C. T. U. Her husband and three sons

Walter Fitch.

Chicago, July 16.—Walter Fitch, expresident of the Chicago Board of Trade and head of the firm of Walter Fitch & Co., died suddenly at his summer home at Eau Claire, Wis., to-day. His death was due to heart disease, which resulted from asthma. Mr. Fitch was 52 years old.

Adolph Lehrfeld.

Adolph Lehrfeld of 93 Decatur street, Brooklyn, died on Sunday in Heidelberg, Germany, in his sixty-fifth year. He had been suffering from stomach trouble. Three months ago be went to Europe with Three months ago be went to Europe with his wife. His body has been cremated. Mr. Lehrfeld was in the gold and silver refining business at 21 John street, Manhattan, and had been a resident of Brooklyn for forty years. He belonged to the forty years. He belonged to the two sons and two daughters survive him

Weather at Summer Resorts. ATLANTIC CITY. July 16 .- Tempera-

ASBURY PARK, July 16 .- Tempera-ASARVILLE, N. C., July 16 .- Tempera-

Millie Preferred Steady at Par.

Two shares of Mille preferred were Jesse sold yesterday to Leonard Ferris and John Wood. The price of shares remains steady at $1 asked.

DIED.

ENO - Thursday, July 16, Henry Clay Enc. in the seventy-fourth year of his uge.
Funeral from his late residence, 8 East Sixty-first street, Saturday morning, Jul. 18. at 9 o'clock. Interment private at Simsbury, Conn.

Simsbury, Conn.

SCHUYLER—At his home, 250 Winyah axenue. New Rochelle, on Thursday, July 16, after a short illness of pneumonia. Moutgomery Schuyler, beloved father of Montgomery Schuyler, Jr. and Robert Livingston Schuyler, in his seventy first year.

Fineral services will be held at Trinity Church. New Rochelle, no Saturday.

Grand Central Station at 10:05. Buria.